DETAILED ACTION

I. Rejection of claim 16 under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by DeMil will not be maintained in light of amendment of filed 8/17/06. Applicant has amended claim 16 to recite " administration of copper salts of caprylic amino acids to grape crops after flowering period".

Applicant's arguments filed 8/17/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. See argument below.

II. Rejection of claim 19 under 35 USC 103(a) as being obvious over Morelle will be maintained in light of amendment filed 8/17/06 for reason on record and reason as follows. Applicant argues that the claim 19 recites a method of protecting crop from animal pests using 3-5 grams of a zinc salt of a butyric amino acid to 100-150 kilograms of the crop. With regard to this, Applicant points out that Morelle is silent to a teaching of an application rate of zinc salt of a butyric amino acid to crop. Examiner argues that since Morelle is silent to the application rate of zinc salt of a butyric amino acid to crop, Morelle is open to a broad application rate including the application rate of the claims. In such an instance applicant must present a showing of the criticality of the instant application rate.

III. New Rejection – New Matter

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 1616

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. A method of administration of copper salts of caprylic amino acids to grape crops after flowering. The phrase "after flowering" presents new matter issue. Note Declaration of 7/12/02 is not part of the original filing and therefore would not conclude one having ordinary skill in the art to know that applicant had possession of applying the copper salts of caprylic amino acids to grape crops after flowering.

IV. Claims 15,17 and 20 are allowable for reason on record.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
